STANDING ORDERS

East Claydon Parish Council

INTRODUCTION

East Claydon Parish Council has adopted these Standing Orders to reflect the updated National Association of Local Council (NALC) model standing orders contained in “Local Councils Explained” by Meera Tharmarajah (© 2013 NALC). This publication and these Standing Orders contain new model standing orders which reference new legislation introduced after 2013 when the last model standing orders were published.

These Standing Orders are the written rules of how East Claydon Parish Council will call, conduct and manage the public and internal meetings of Council, its sub-committees and to refer to its various internal organisational and administrative arrangements. Standing orders are essential to regulate the proceedings of a meeting for the efficient and timely compliance with statutory obligations and to deliver its duties in regard to the expectations of the residents of the Parish. Councillors and council employees are expected to abide by them. Council has made every effort to ensure all relevant statutory requirements to which a council is subject are encompassed in these Standing Orders but confirm that, in any event, those requirements apply whether or not they are incorporated herein. These Standing Orders make reference to and are consistent with other Council Policies where relevant. These Standing Orders do not include standing orders for the regulation and control of Council financial affairs and accounting procedures. These are held separately in the Council’s Financial Regulations.

NOTES:

For information; text in bold type describes legal and statutory requirements. Council has adopted them without changing them or their meaning. Where gender specific wording is used, meaning is intended to be gender neutral. Where the word “councillor” is used, unless the context suggests otherwise, the meaning is intended to include non-councillors, with or without voting rights, and council employees.
